MUSIC NOTES (Autumn Toussaint)

We welcome the Wayzata Symphony Orchestra, in residence here at WCC, to our worship this morning in both 9:00am, and 10:45am. Join them for their spring concert (April 29) and for their upcoming 10th anniversary season 2018-19.

Our closing hymn today is one you will no doubt recognize, but did you also know that it was Martin Luther King's favorite hymn? King adored Thomas A. Dorsey's musical plea for Divine intervention. He frequently requested it of the gospel greats he ran across at benefits and other gatherings. The song is fatefully linked to King's last night: Right before he was shot on a Memphis balcony, he called the saxophonist Ben Branch and asked him to play it "real pretty" at an upcoming meeting. Mahalia Jackson sang the the hymn at King's funeral, and Aretha Franklin did so at his memorial service. In the narrative he left behind, King lived, died, and was spiritually resurrected through Dorsey's glorious hymn we sing together today.

+ OPENING HYMN
Here I Am, Lord

I, the Lord of sea and sky, I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in dark and sin, my hand will save.
I who made the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them? Whom shall I send?

I the Lord of snow and rain, I have born my people's pain.
I have wept for love of them, they turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone,
give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak my word to them, whom shall I send?

(Chorus) Here I am Lord, is it I Lord?
I have heard You calling in the night.
I will go Lord, if You lead me.
I will hold Your people in my heart.

I the Lord of wind and flame, I will tend the poor and lame,
I will set a feast for them, my hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide, till their hearts be satisfied,
I will give my life to them, whom shall I send? (Chorus)

I will hold Your people in my heart.

HYMN OF DEVOTION
For the Beauty of the Earth

For the beauty of the earth, for the beauty of the skies,
For the love which from our birth, over and around us lies,
Lord of all, to thee we raise, this our hymn of grateful praise.

PASTORAL PRAYER & THE LORD'S PRAYER Rustin Comer
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

SENDING HYMN

Precious Lord, Take My Hand

(Choir only first time)
Precious Lord, take my hand
Lead me on, let me stand.
I am tired, I am weak, I am worn.
Through the storm, through the night
Lead me on through the light.
Take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home (All Repeat)

When my way grows dreary
Precious Lord, lead me near.
When my life is almost gone
Hear my cry, hear my call, hold my hand lest I fall,
Take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.

Precious Lord, take my hand
Lead me on, let me stand
I am tired, I am weak, I am worn.
Through the storm, through the night
Lead me on through the light.
Take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.
Take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.
