Jesus, Buddha, & Me Interfaith Sermon and Lecture Series

As our world shrinks, our hearts and minds expand. The religious diversity of our nation and neighborhoods gives us daily chances to meet people from other faith traditions. Our younger generations have grown up in a religiously pluralistic context. These realities and others motivate us to increase our understanding of other religious traditions.

In June, we will turn our attention to Buddhism. Unlike our sibling Abrahamic traditions of Judaism and Islam, Christianity does not have a shared history with Buddhism but it does hold many of the same core values. Although not built on a system of beliefs, Buddhism invites practices that plumb the depth of our connections to God, the world around us, and ourselves.

Can you be Christian and Buddhist at the same time? Are Buddhist practices and values incompatible with those of Christianity? Is Buddhism a religion, a way of life, or a philosophy? These are among the questions we will explore in our annual Interfaith Sermon and Lecture Series this June. Beginning in worship on June 9, we will alternate between Sunday sermons and Wednesday night lectures in the Chapel following Music+Message. Join us as we go deeper into our own tradition and discover the ways in which we share the heart of God with all people.

Week One

Sermon: Sunday, June 9: Buddhist Basics

Movie Screening: Walk With Me, Sunday, June 9, 5:00 p.m., Chapel

Lecture: Wednesday, June 12* (following Music+Message, 7:30 p.m., Chapel)

Ted O'Toole, Understanding Buddhism

Week Two

Sermon: Sunday, June 16: 3 Universal Truths

Lecture: Wednesday, June 19* (following Music+Message, 7:30 p.m., Chapel)

Bussho Lahn, Zen Buddhism in Minnesota

Week Three

Sermon: Sunday, June 23: The 8-Fold Path

Lecture: Wednesday, June 26* (following Music+Message, 7:30 p.m., Chapel)

Susan Stabile, Buddhism & Christianity

* Music+Message begins at 5:30 p.m. on the front lawn. Lectures begin in the Wakefield Chapel following Music+Message.

SUMMER CATALOGS ARRIVING SOON!

Think that the church goes on vacation in the summer? Not Wayzata Community Church! While the pace is certainly different, and our Sunday schedule changes a bit, there is still plenty of life at 125 Wayzata Blvd. E. during the summer months.

WCC loves to create great opportunities to gather the whole community around a wide variety of worship and events. We feel that summer is a great time for connecting together around fun, friends, and family. You can join us for outdoor Music+Message on the lawn each Wednesday, experience our summer worship and sermon series, or connect with community in a multitude of ways...

Our encouragement to you is to use this summer to make new connections at the church. Thumb through the Summer Catalog, connect with an interest, a theme, an activity that you'd enjoy, and sign up. Then all you need to do is show up. It's that simple! We look forward to enjoying this summer with you.

Music+Message begins June 12!

Join us on the front lawn this summer— for great music, food, fellowship, and message! Enjoy a delicious picnic dinner— food will be available for purchase each week, or bring your own. Kids can spend time in a safe, supervised play area with a bouncy house, arts & crafts, and games. All are welcome... bring your dogs!

We have a great line-up of musicians this summer!

June 12: Daisy Dillman Band. The Target Field Food Truck will be in the parking lot, and we'll also serve pizza by the slice. Vintage cars will be on display too! Our Interfaith Speaker will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Chapel.

June 19: Power Tap with Charles Lazarus. Chef Jeff will serve his famous Pulled Pork sandwiches, and a Wayzata fire truck will be on hand for kids to explore. Our Interfaith Speaker will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Chapel.

June 26: The Michael Shynes Band. Chef Jeff will have burgers on the grill, served with all the fixings! Our Interfaith Speaker will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Chapel.

July 10: Keri Noble. Bring your pets for a Blessing of the Animals! The Target Field Food Truck will be in the parking lot and we'll also be serving pizza by the slice.

July 17: The Belfast Cowboys. The Boy Scouts will be grilling hot dogs, and we'll be assembling and packing 1,000 sandwiches for The Sandwich Project MN.

July 24: Fred Steele & Friends. Chef Jeff will serve his famous Pulled Pork sandwiches, and we will welcome New Members into WCC this evening! Following M+M, join us in the Chapel for a screening of Alive Inside in support of our Called2Care and Music & Memory mission program.
