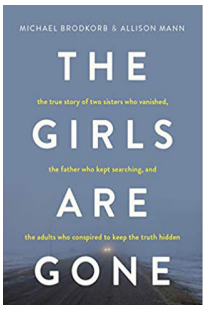
November Sermon Series

MICAH: Rote or Required?
November 3, 10, 17, 24

"Do justice, love kindness, walk humbly with God." Wayzata Community Church has ended nearly every worship service for more than a decade with these words. But do we truly understand and embrace the importance and power of them? Have we allowed them to become too familiar, so rote that they have lost their capacity to inspire and challenge us? The prophet Micah asked the central question of faith in Jesus: "What does the Lord require of us?" We will spend these weeks of November considering Micah's answers... as well as our own.



Author Event: The Girls Are Gone

Monday, November 4, 6:30 p.m. in the Chapel

Meet Michael Brodkorb and Allison Mann, authors of The Girls Are Gone: The True Story of Two Sisters Who Vanished, the Father Who Kept Searching, and the Adults Who Conspired to Keep the Truth Hidden. On the evening of April 19, 2013, Samantha and Gianna Rucki disappeared. Two of five children born to David Rucki and Sandra Grazzini-Rucki, the teenagers vanished in the midst of their parents divorce. The girls' father worked tirelessly with law enforcement to search day and night for his daughters, following every lead while raising three remaining children at home. Their mother, Sandra, used her newfound freedom to vacation around the world, abandoning her children. As the investigation intensified, Sandra also disappeared. This is the true story of two sisters who went missing, the father who kept searching, and the adults who conspired to keep the truth hidden.

Mental Health Forum

Creating Caring Faith Communities in Minnesota: Five Things You Can Do
A collaboration with NAMI Minnesota (National Alliance on Mental Illness)
Thursday, November 7, 2019
7:00 p.m., Mithun Hall

Learn about mental illnesses, the impact of negative attitudes and five things each of us can do to make Minnesota a better place for people who experience a mental illness. This class is for especially tailored for faith communities interested in learning about and helping to change attitudes towards mental illnesses. Our guest speaker is Kay King, Older Adults Program Coordinator and Community Educator at NAMI Minnesota, who has worked for NAMI ten years. Invite a friend and attend this important forum about a topic that impacts every one of us as a community. The forum is free. We ask that you register as we will provide materials for each participant. REGISTER at www.wayzatacommunitychurch.org/fallregistration.

What Are Humans, That You Regard Them?

Co-teachers: Dr. Ronald Troxel & Rev. Rustin Comer
Wednesdays, through 11/20
10:00-11:15 a.m. & 6:30-8:00 p.m., Chapel
Fee: $20 for course material

In the previous course, Ron and Rustin explored who is God. In this course, they will discern who we are as humans in relation to God. "What are Humans, That You Regard Them?" This question comes from Psalm 8:4 and 144:3. Within the Biblical narrative, we see a multitude of answers to this question, many of which seem to compete with one another. Register for this new class at www.wayzatacommunitychurch.org/fallregistration.

hello

Stop by the HELLO Spot

We are so glad you have joined us for worship and we encourage you to take a next step into belonging to Wayzata Community Church. Come to a "Quick Hello" at the Hello Spot in Founders Hall (right outside the Sanctuary) following worship. Meet one of our clergy, hear more about our community, and ask us any questions you might have about WCC. We're glad you're here!
